

Woodmansterne

Woodmansterne publish cards for all seasons and for every occasion, regularly winning industry design awards across more categories than any other publisher. They are dedicated to assisting personal communication through the sharing of beautiful images – well designed, authentically sourced and meticulously reproduced.

Woodmansterne deliver exceptional levels of service and support. You have the opportunity to join retailers such as John Lewis, Waitrose, WH Smith, Harrods and Fenwicks in offering these beautiful top quality cards.

All season, well known popular brand names, fast moving stock, no stock storage requirement, merchandised displays, excellent quality, award winning and highly profitable.

Experts in Concessions

Maximise your under performing sales space!

By analysing existing sales per square foot we look at utilising underperforming space, both internally and externally, to bring in recognised concession brands to drive additional footfall into the business.

Concepts vary from utilisation of indoor space to renovation of existing, derelict buildings or provision of bespoke cabins to accommodate new concession partners.

Placement of concession partners has revolutionised the industry and has improved the profitability of garden centres by reducing the seasonality of the business.

Concession businesses we work with vary from the traditional conservatories to lifestyle and gift retailers, outdoor clothing and farm shops.
